The Lost Commandment

Have We Missed What Jesus Really Wants?

Dave Greber is a Christian speaker, author, attorney, and Bible teacher, with the ability to explain complex subjects in simple terms. He graduated from the University of Virginia with an honors degree in English, and then earned a law degree and an M.B.A. from Northwestern University. While at Northwestern, Greber co-founded the Northwestern Law Fellowship and taught junior high Sunday school. After graduating, Greber accepted a position with a large, nationally known law firm, where he represented several Christian ministries. He was also an active member in the Christian Legal Society.

As a leader in his community of Frederick, Maryland, Greber has been interviewed by television, radio, and newspaper reporters, and has served on the boards of several community organizations. He has been married for 27 years to his wife, Lynne, and has two daughters, Lauren and Elizabeth. Find out more about his ministry at www.davegreber.com.
