The Lost Commandment

Have We Missed What Jesus Really Wants?

Dave Greber

How can we experience a more intimate, loving, and joyous relationship with Jesus Christ? "Jesus answered this question at the Last Supper," says Dave Greber, author of The Lost Commandment: Have We Missed What Jesus Really Wants?

At the Last Supper, Jesus redefined how Christians are to love others by saying, "A new command I give you ... as I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). "No other verse—including the Golden Rule—better summarizes how God expects Christians to treat other people," says Greber. In this often overlooked and commonly misunderstood commandment—which Greber calls the "Lost Commandment"—we find the key to experiencing the love and complete joy of Christ (John 15:11).

"Obedience to the Lost Commandment brings our faith alive," asserts Greber, "faith that results in an amazing, joy-filled life." Read these pages and discover for yourself how to experience the love and joy of Christ more deeply.
