

JOY: Psalm 30:1-5 (NIV)

Psalm 30:5 (NASB) ... Weeping may last for the night, but a _____ of _____ comes in the morning.

This is a Psalm of _____. The author is Psalm 30 is _____, he is praising God. Why?

- 1. His enemies were _____. (v 1)
- 2. God answered his _____. (v 2)
- 3. David's life was _____. (v 3)
- 4. God is _____. (v 4)
- 5. God's _____ are very _____. (v 5)

2 types of joy:

- I. Everyday joy ...
 - a. Is not _____
 - b. Does not provide _____ satisfaction
 - c. We cannot hold our own joy, it _____

- The message of Christ is satisfying and permanent!

II. The fruit of lasting joy ...

- a. The first step is _____ and _____.
- b. Joy of _____ in others
- c. Joy of serving

Joy of receiving God's blessings here on earth. Matthew chapter 5:

Inheritance (v 3&4)

_____ (v 4)

Satisfaction (v 6)

_____ (v 7)

Meeting God (v 8)

_____ (v 9)

Fellowship (v 11)

GOLD NUGGET:

We can't always _____ our circumstance, but our circumstance can _____ us!

Application: What do you want God to change in your life?
 What are you pursuing in life that steals your joy?
 We serve a God who transforms weeping into dancing!
